

Please do not change Indiana's law concerning telemarketing calls. I like not getting them every day and am enjoying my privacy, as we all should be able to do.